

COMIC BOOK CLUB OF ITHACA
1701 N. Cayuga St. Ithaca, N.Y.
1st & 3rd Tues. of each month

Welcome again to our second Newsletter of the C.B.C.I.. Before we begin we wish to apologise for the mistake we made last issue. Gene Roddenberry was not at the Union Cafeteria but at Benlight Gymnasium. We made up for this blunder though by recording his talk which is available from the Library, and while we're on the subject, did you know we have fanzines and books that can be borrowed from the Library. See Bill Turner for more information.

Tim Gray our V.P. would like to know if anyone knows of a store that sells Charlton Comics. He's looking for back issues for his collection.

Robert Overstreets' Comic Book Price Guide 75 is now on sale at the club. The book can be purchased from Bill Turner for $6.95. We originally planned to sell them at a discount to C.B.C.I. members but unfortunately we could not get them at a discount, so to make up for this, any member who buys a Guide will receive $1.00 off on payments of dues. This is an indispensable guide for people who sell comics. Get yours at the next meeting.

At our next meeting on May 6th, Plastic Comic Book Protective Bags will be on sale. They are 3 mill thick and can be bought from Paul Hildrith for the following prices: 10 for 25¢, 20 for 50¢, 50 for $1.25, and 100 for $2.50 until they're gone.

We goofed again. Last time we told you that Tim Gray's display, "The Development of Comic Art from the mid 1850's", would be at the Club Library. Well it's actually going to be at the Public Library between May 19-31. Don't miss it.

And don't forget that on our May 20th meeting a Conan #1 in near mint condition will be raffled off at 50¢ a ticket.

There will be a contest for a Comic Logo Character for the club to use as a rubber stamp for our return address. Contestants work will be voted on by all members by a secret ballot. Work should be submitted no later than the June 3rd meeting. The winner will receive a prize which is not yet known.
